

SHOOTING BLANKS

Solution: when straight lines are drawn from each word or phrase bullet point to the bullseye on the coffee mug that is completed by that word or phrase, lots of letters are crossed off, but only eight letters are crossed off twice which gives the solution: MUGSHOTS (which is what Frankie meant when her was talking about "Mona Lisas" but it's also what the two of them are doing – shooting at mugs). The singly crossed-out words spell out (in order of line top to bottom from the left side) DO NOT PAY ANY ATTENTION TO ALL THE LETTERS CROSSED OFF JUST ONCE. And all the letter that are not crossed off at all spell out (by sections top to bottom, left to right: JUST FOCUS ON THE LETTERS THAT ARE X-ED OUT.
